

Role of the Historian

Your role will be to look at the historical context of both countries. A flow chart of the many peace keeping efforts will be helpful in understanding the peace efforts, the battles for supremacy and the diplomatic missions that have been conducted so far will assist that audience in the understanding of this problem.

- 1.) Locate and identify Palestine and Israel on the world map and the map of the Middle East. (5 points)
- 2.) Who is the leader of Palestine and Israel? What are their roles? (10 points)
- 3.) Summarize the Middle East conflict? (20 points)
- 4.) Illustrate the areas that are part of the conflict. (10 points)
- 5.) Organize the history of the area in a chronological order (20 points)
- 6.) What is the Saudi Peace Initiative? Does this help the cause for peace? (20 points)

Role of Israeli Diplomat

In this role you are a diplomat assigned to the task of coming up with a peace plan as a team but where the interests of Israeli people is not neglected.

- 1.) How was the state of Israel created? (10 points)
- 2.) What are the demands of the people of Israel? (20 points)
- 3.) What is the state of Israel willing to give up in order to achieve peace? (25 points)
- 4.) What is the major religion of Israel? (5 points)
- 5.) Explain Zionism and its impact in creation of the state of Israel. (25 points)

Role of the Palestinian Diplomat

You are the Palestinian diplomat and you need to come up with a peace plan that takes into context the needs of the Palestinian people

- 1.) How was Palestine created? (10 points)
- 2.) What are the demands of the people of Palestine? (20 points)
- 3.) What is the state of Palestine willing to give up in order to achieve peace? (25 points)
- 4.) What is the major religion of Palestine. (5 points)
- 5.) What does their religion say about war, and fighting? (25 points)

Role of the mediator

You are the diplomat who has to stay cool under the pressure from both sides and keep the team together. You are looking to mediate this matter and are ultimately responsible to come up with a peace plan.

- 1.) What are the areas of common ground between Palestine and Israel? (30 points)
- 2.) What are the areas of differences? (30 points)
- 3.) What role does violence play and what avenues are there to stop the cycle of violence? (15 points)
- 4.) Define terrorist and Freedom fighter (10 points)